The rights and duties of the Trust of the creditor trust are governed by the AC Trust Agreement (the "Trust Agreement").

THE PARTIES

14. Pursuant to the Plan and Trust Agreement, the Trust has been granted the rights to, inter alia, file and prosecute all actions, causes of action, or claims of the Debtors or their estates arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code that have been duly assigned to the Trust.

15. Upon information and belief, the Defendant is a company that provides support services in connection with the offer of securities, with headquarters in New York, New York.

FACTS GIVING RISE TO PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

16. The Defendant provided Advanta with support services and acted as depository and information agent in connection with the offer of capital securities.

17. The Trustee has completed an analysis of all readily available information of the Debtors and is seeking to avoid all of the transfers of an interest of the Debtors' property made by Debtors to Defendant on or within ninety (90) days prior to the Petition Date (the “Preference Period”).

18. Plaintiff has determined that Advanta made transfers of an interest in its property to or for the benefit of Defendant during the Preference Period through payments aggregating an amount not less than $177,200.92. The details of each transfer are set forth on Exhibit “A” hereto and incorporated by reference herein. Such details include “Invoice Number,” “Invoice Date,” “Invoice Amount,” “Check Number,” “Check Date,” “Clearing Date” and “Amount.”

19. Exhibit “A” reflects Plaintiff’s present knowledge as to the transfers made to Defendant by Advanta during the Preference Period. During the course of this proceeding, Plaintiff may learn (through discovery or otherwise) of additional transfers made by Advanta to Defendant during the Preference Period. By virtue of this Complaint, Plaintiff is seeking to avoid and recover all transfers made by Advanta during the Preference Period, whether such transfers are reflected on Exhibit “A” or not. Collectively, all transfers made by Advanta during the Preference Period of an interest in its property to or for the benefit of Defendant (whether such transfers are reflected on Exhibit “A” hereto or not) are referred to herein as the “Subject Transfers.”

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

COUNT I

(Avoidance of Preferential Transfers – 11 U.S.C. § 547(b))

20. The Plaintiff realleges and incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 18 as if fully set forth at length herein.

21. Section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers the trustee or debtor in possession, for the benefit of the estate, to avoid a transfer to or for the benefit of a creditor if the requirements set forth therein are met.

22. Pursuant to section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trust may avoid any transfer of an interest of the Debtors in property (a) to or for the benefit of a creditor, (b) for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the Debtors before such transfer was made, (c) made while the Debtors were insolvent, (d) made on or within ninety (90) days, or in certain circumstances within one (1) year, before the filing of the petition and (e) that enables such creditor to receive more in satisfaction of its claims than it would receive in a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code if the transfer had not been made and the creditor had received payment of such debt to the extent provided by the provisions of title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

23. During the Preference Period, Advanta made the Subject Transfers described in paragraphs "18" and "19" above to Defendant.

24. Advanta was insolvent, and pursuant to section 547(f) of the Bankruptcy Code is presumed to be insolvent, during the ninety (90) day period prior to the Petition Date, and on the dates on which it made the Subject Transfers to Defendant.

25. The Subject Transfers were transfers of an interest of Advanta in property.

26. During the Preference Period, Defendant was a creditor at the time of each of the Subject Transfers by virtue of support services and acted as depository and information agent in connection with the offer of capital securities to Advanta for which Advanta was obligated to pay following the provision of said services.

27. The Subject Transfers were to or for the benefit of a creditor within the meaning of section 547(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code because each of the Subject Transfers either reduced or fully satisfied a debt or debts then owed by Advanta to Defendant, as set forth on Exhibit "A" hereto.

28. The Subject Transfers were made on account of antecedent debts owed by Advanta to Defendant for support services and acted as depository and information agent in connection with the offer of capital securities before such Transfers were made. The antecedent nature of the debt is evidenced by the lease, purchase order, contracts, agreement, invoices and/or bills of lading identified on Exhibit "A" hereto.

29. The Subject Transfers enabled Defendant to recover more on its antecedent debts than it would have received if (a) the Subject Transfers had not been made, (b) Advanta case was a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (c) Defendant received payment of its antecedent debts to the extent provided by the provisions of title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

30. Defendant has not repaid all or any part of the Subject Transfers.

31. The Subject Transfers constitute preferential transfers subject to avoidance pursuant to section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

COUNT II

(Recovery of Avoided Transfers – 11 U.S.C. § 550(a))

32. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 30 as if fully set forth at length herein.

33. Plaintiff is entitled to avoid the Subject Transfers pursuant to section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

34. Defendant is either the (a) the initial transferee of the Subject Transfers, (b) the entity for whose benefit the Subject Transfers were made, (c) an immediate or mediate transferee of an initial transferee, or (d) the successor in interest to one of the foregoing.

35. Plaintiff is entitled to recover from the Defendant the value of each of the Subject Transfers pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

WHEREFORE, the Trust demands judgment in its favor and against Defendant (1) declaring that the Subject Transfers to the Defendant constitute voidable preferential transfers pursuant to section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (2) avoiding the Subject Transfers and directing and ordering that the Defendant pay the Trust, pursuant to section 550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the value of the Subject Transfers, in an amount to be determined at trial, but no less than the amount set forth on Exhibit "A" hereto, plus interest and costs; (3) awarding the Trust its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the extent permitted; and (4) granting to the Trust such other and further relief as the Court deems equitable and proper.
