To Bankruptcy Court

Case No. 09-13931 (KVC)

Before the Honorable Kevin J. Casey

When we received a letter on January 13, 2010 that Advanta (the company we'd entrusted with our life savings) had filed for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy, we were completely devastated.

At that time, we also received correspondence from the Bank of New York Mellon advising us that we had to be receiving a letter from you the Bankruptcy Court setting a deadline date for filing Proof of Claim. As yet, we have not heard from you, making each day a living hell. (See page 2).

We have to know the correct day for sending this. In order to save our sanity, please answer this letter.

This is on S.O.S.!
